Hoop Rollers

Roll the ball JUST hard enough...

Overview

- ★ # of Participants: Any
- ★ Where to Play: Indoors
- ★ Age of Participants: Elementary/Middle/High School
- ★ Approximate Time to Play: 10-30 minutes
- ★ Materials: Dodgeballs, Hula Hoops, Painter's Tape

Summary

- ★ Teams roll dodgeballs aiming to stop inside of their row of hula hoops
- ★ Successful rolls allow players to collect and bring their hula hoops back to their team
- ★ After collecting all of their hula hoops, teams get a chance to steal from hoops from other teams
- ★ Most hoops collected after each round wins

How to Play

Split your group into teams of 3 to 5 people each, and have each team stand behind an established line. Every team is given a dodgeball and has a line of 5 hula hoops placed in front of them.The goal of the game is to roll your ball on the ground with exactly enough force to get it to rest inside one of your team's hula hoops. If a player is successful in their roll, they can run to the ball, retrieve it, and bring the hula hoop back to their team. If they miss, then they just return with the dodgeball, and leave the hoop in place. Players will take turns rolling the ball and try to perfectly place it in each hoop down the line, collecting them one by one. You should also set up a second line on the opposite side of the hoops. Once a team has collected all 5 of their hula hoops, they will be given the opportunity to stand behind this second line, and roll into opposing teams' hoops to try to steal a few extra points. Once all of the hoops have been collected, add up how many hula hoops each team has, and reset the play area for the next round. You should play three rounds in total, and it's recommended to add a twist to each round to keep it interesting. For example, you could make the hoops worth two points each in the second round, or three each in the third round. You could even give teams more than one ball to roll, or change what type of ball they have to use. At the end of three rounds, the team that has scored the most total points wins!

Watch the Video Explanation Here!